Band Camp 2009

Fresh Off the Press

One East Meck band member reports: "This past first week of band camp has really set the stage for the upcoming marching season. With a combination of great music and marching choreography that really shows off East Meck's stuff, we can really count on a couple of first place finishes in October." For the most part, the weather has been cooperative, but all are reminded to keep up with the water and sunscreen.

Annual Picnic Show

August 20, 2009

Come and see what great progress the band has made during two weeks of Band Camp. For families new to East Meck it is a great time to get to know others. Bring the whole family with your favorite picnic foods to the practice area under the shade trees. Show your spirit by wearing your favorite band logo shirt or booster wear. Please visit our information tables and check in to say "hello."

Band Packets

Check with your band student

There are several different information sheets in the packets being sent home during Band Camp. Please take some quiet time to carefully look at the information. Please fill out the forms as requested and send back to the school as directed.

Reminder-

"Casual Uniform" consists of East Meck Band golf shirts and navy blue (no denim) shorts, white sox and clean tennis shoes. This uniform is to be worn for the Picnic Show and the Matthews Alive parade on Labor Day weekend.
